California Man Admits Hacking Into Computers of High-Technology Company

The United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of California announced that Mark Erfurt, 39, of Orange, California, pled guilty today in federal court in San Jose to gaining unauthorized access and recklessly damaging the computer system of Manufacturing Electronic Sales Corporation ("MESOC"), a Santa Clara-based manufacturing business, and to obstructing justice when he later tried to destroy evidence of his computer crimes.

Mr. Erfurt pled guilty to each count of an Superseding Information charging him with Unauthorized Access into a Computer Recklessly Causing Damage, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1030(a)(5)(A)(ii), 1030(a)(5)(B)(i), and Destruction, Alteration and Falsification of Records in Federal Investigation, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1519. Section 1519 was enacted as part of the reforms included in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and prohibits the destruction of or tampering with any document with the intent to impede any U.S. Government investigation. The maximum statutory penalty is five years imprisonment for the computer hacking count, and twenty years imprisonment for the obstruction of justice count. Each count also carries a maximum fine of $250,000 or twice the gross loss, a three year term of supervised release, a mandatory special assessment of $100, and restitution. However, the actual sentence will be dictated by the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, which take into account a number of factors, and will be imposed in the discretion of the Court. Mr. Erfurt is scheduled to be sentenced on January 24, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. before United States District Judge James Ware in San Jose.

According to the Plea Agreement, Mr. Erfurt admitted that, on January 23 and 24, 2003, he hacked into the computer system of MESOC by using a computer from his workplace at a separate company in Irvine, California. Mr. Erfurt had previously served as the Information Technology Manager and then as Network Manager for MESOC. After gaining unauthorized access to MESOC's computer system, Mr. Erfurt admitted that he downloaded a proprietary database, read the e-mail account of the company president, and deleted data from the servers. Mr. Erfurt also admitted to obstructing justice in the FBI's ensuing investigation of these events by deleting data from his new employer's
